CONFLICTING RUMORS

REGARDING THE TROUBLES ON THE BURLINGTON SYSTEM.

One is That the Strike Will Be Declared Off in a Few Days, and the Other is That a General Strike is Probable—More Signs to the Amalgamated Scale.

CHICAGO, July 18.—There is a strong probability that the Burlington strike will be settled within the next few days. Just what the terms of settlement will be is now but a matter of conjecture, but it is intimated that in consideration of the company withdrawing from the prosecution in the dynamite conspiracy cases the strikers will surrender and declare the strike off.

It seems hardly possible, however, the company would make any such compromise. It is much more likely, however, that the terms of compromise for both sides declare that they will not yield everything, and it must be a compromise of some sort that will result in the strike being declared off by the Brotherhood and all the moral assistance possible granted them in the future, in consideration of the Burlington reorganizing the Brotherhood and reinstating in its employment such men as it may desire to fill vacancies existing and which may occur in the future.

When asked about the conference C. E. Perkins said: "Yes, there has been a conference. Mr. Arthur, Mr. Sargent and Mr. Alexander Sullivan, their counsel, came to say that they did not countenance violence, and have no sympathy with dynamiters. Messrs. Hoge and Murphy were present at a part of the interview. We had much talk over the situation, and all argued that the strike ought to be declared off. Nothing was definitely settled, however, although it is hoped that some good may come from it."

It was learned Monday night from Paul Morton that while the railroad people are desirous that the strike should be declared off by the Brotherhood, yet they have no intention of compromising any of the pending criminal suits, nor could they if they would. Proceedings have been begun and they must take their course, and if the men who had been arrested are found guilty, it is not for the railroad to decide what shall be done with them.

Nothing was said or done at the conference to justify the belief that there will be any compromise which will release anyone now under arrest. On the contrary another man has been arrested at Galesburg.

All that the company will do if the strike is declared off is to take back all the Brotherhood men it consistently can—men who have taken no violent part in the troubles. There will soon be another conference, at which a final agreement may be reached.

Rumors gained currency, Monday night, of the arrest of Mr. Arthur, chief of the Brotherhood of Engineers and of the discovery of a new circular which was very damaging to the order. The fact that Mr. Arthur had taken his key from the Grand Pacific and had not returned at an early hour seemed to give color to the report of his arrest.

The chairman of the advisory board was found at the National hotel about 3 o'clock a. m. When asked concerning the rumors he said it was not possible that Chief Arthur had been arrested, as he had seen him at a late hour Monday night.

LATER—Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was not arrested as intimated in the morning papers. "I wish the United Press would say, as coming from me, that the Brotherhood has no sympathy with dynamiters and that every man proven guilty of being identified with the use of dynamite will be expelled from the order. We will not countenance any action on the part of any man that would bring discredit on the order."

A General Strike Talked Of.
CHICAGO, July 18.—Talk of a general strike was more decided Monday evening than since the Burlington strike was first inaugurated. The arrests of the dynamiters and the prosecution of the sal-soda and emery circular people was said to be sufficient provocation.

During the afternoon a telegram from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Davenport, Iowa, was sent to W. F. Gould, chairman of the Rock Island grievance committee, which indicated that preparations had been made for a strike on that system. The telegram was sent in care of Mr. S. E. Hoge, chairman of the Burlington grievance committee. Mr. Gould did not appear and at a late hour Mr. Hoge had not seen him.

The telegram said: "We await developments. Owing to circumstances the men have decided that we should adopt radical measures."

Mr. Hoge was asked what he understood "radical measures" to mean. "I suppose they intend to strike," he said, "I don't know what else it could mean."

"Are the circumstances the arrest of yourself and others?"

"I presume so."

"Will the engineers strike on the other systems?"

"I don't know. I haven't heard from any others, but the strike may become general if it begins on the Rock Island. Mr. Sargent, chief of the Firemen's Brotherhood, said he had heard of no strike on any other system."

With reference to the dispatch received from Davenport Mr. Hoge said this morning: "The dispatch may mean a boycott, or many other things, but I don't think there will be any trouble. The Burlington affair will be fixed up before many hours have passed, and when the Burlington trouble is settled it will be like pouring oil on the troubled waters."

General Manager St. John, of the Rock Island, when asked if there was a prospect of a strike upon the road, said: "If there was any indication of a strike on the Rock Island, I would certainly hear of it. Our men have no grievance that I know of. I have not been waited on by a committee, and I certainly do not think there is any trouble among our engineers."

Bowles Told the Truth.

GALESBURG, July 18.—United States Marshal F. H. Marsh and two deputies brought Bowles here to test the truth of his story that a dynamite cartridge had been placed on the Burlington track northeast of here, and subsequently in consequence of fear of results had been concealed in a hedge near by.

The officers and railroad officials and a number of municipal officers and citizens went to the depot that Bowles indicated, and after considerable digging, found the dynamite cartridge. It is of the Hercules kind and had caps at both ends. It is now in the hands of the railroad officials here.

Another Arrest Made.
CHICAGO, July 18.—Another arrest on the Burlington dynamite conspiracy occurred at Galesburg. At an early hour a deputy United States marshal arrested George Clark, a Brotherhood engineer, on the charge of conspiracy. He was taken before a justice of the peace and his case was continued until the 27th.

Will Move to Belgium.
PITTSBURGH, July 18.—George A. Macbeth & Company, chimney glass manufacturers, have about decided to remove their works to Belgium. Macbeth & Company have the largest chimney glass house in the United States, and probably in the world. Mr. Macbeth says that a careful calculation has persuaded him that they will be able to manufacture chimney glasses of just as good a quality in Belgium, bring them into the United States and pay a 45 per cent. duty on them, all for less money than they can manufacture them here for.

Four More Sign the Scale.
PITTSBURGH, July 18.—P. L. Kimberly & Company, of Shannon, Pa.; Chess Cook & Company, of this city; Chartier's Iron and Steel company, of Mansfield, and the Cannonsburg Iron and Steel company, signed the Amalgamated iron scale Monday and will resume operations. The Manufacturers' association is failing to pieces. President Keating will resign at the next meeting.

REV. SAM. JONES
Gives His Reasons for Desiring President Cleveland's Re-Election.

CINCINNATI, July 18.—Sam. Jones, the gifted and go-lively Georgia evangelist, was in the city Monday afternoon, en route to the High Bridge, Ky., camp meeting, where he has commenced a week of revival work.

SAM. JONES.

When seen at the Gibson house by a reporter Sam. appeared in his usual good health and lively flow of spirits.

"What I said at Chautauqua last Sunday," said he, "no matter how I was reported in the newspapers, was that if I thought Grover Cleveland's success depended upon my vote, he should have it. I said it then, and I say it now, not because I am an admirer of Cleveland, nor because I am a Democrat, for I am neither; but because Cleveland's re-election would mean, of course, the continuance in power for another four years of the Democratic party, and that is just what is wanted to bring into existence a grand reform party that will overwhelm and utterly rout the old political organizations in 1892."

"Democracy is avowedly the party of rum, no Sabbath, no God. The Republican party does not openly avow itself in cahoots with the evil one, whatever may be its general secret bent; therefore, the reform party of which I speak is not so likely to be forthcoming under its rule. In fact, if the Republicans again come into power this fall things will continue for the next twenty years just as they have been for the past twenty."

"This grand party of reform would be composed of members of all parties, of the north, south, east, west—of everywhere. It would everlastingly break up the solid south, and it is about the only thing that can do that. The issue on which this battle of 1892 will be fought, should Democracy remain in power until then, will be whisky or no whisky, Sabbath or no Sabbath, God or no God. The two old parties are contesting at present, with no issue whatever between them. I can discover no difference worth mentioning in their platforms."

"I think Cleveland will not need my vote, so I really do not know who I will cast my ballot for. I have thought some of supporting Fisk, the Prohibitionist, although I do not belong to that party either. If I do finally conclude to vote the Prohibition ticket, it will be simply on the principle that I prefer firing into the air to firing into the mud."

He "Set a River on Fire."

CHICAGO, July 18.—A boy's curiosity "to see if it would burn" Monday morning set the Chicago river on fire. It occurred near the stock yard, where the river has long ceased to be water, and is in reality nothing but grease and animal fats which have found their way from the slaughter houses. A lighted match thrown into these ingredients soon had the river blazing for several blocks, and the fire-boat and two locomotives succeeded in keeping the flames from the more valuable property, but not until about $3,000 worth of dockage had been destroyed.

Two Cents of Courage.

ST. STEPHEN, Ky., July 18.—News from Staunton, Powell county, says that John Rose, a wealthy farmer, and his son-in-law, S. D. Hall, who had been unfriendly for years, met Monday in deadly altercation. Rose had a finger shot off and Hall was instantly killed. Both families are courageous, and a more serious trouble is anticipated.

GRANDLY SUCCESSFUL.

THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION AT MARIETTA, OHIO.

Speeches Made By Mary A. Livermore and Senator William M. Evarts—Grand Display of Fireworks—Historical Tableaux With Original Costumes.

MARIETTA, O., July 17.—The managers of the Marietta centennial are providing their visitors and guests with an abundance of engaging entertainments. Monday night there was an elaborate display of fireworks from barges anchored in the middle of the river. A speech was made by Mrs. Mary A. Livermore in the hall.

WILLIAM M. EVARTS.

Senator Sherman, Senator Daniels, of Virginia, Gen. J. S. Robinson and Gen. Grosvenor arrived this morning, and Governor Foster, Gen. Ewing and a car of other well known people arrived in the evening.

This morning was given up to the speech of Senator Evarts, of New York. He had an audience of 5,000 persons to hear him, and has probably never addressed himself to a larger, more intelligent number of persons. The exercises were opened with prayer by Dr. Hinsdale, Garfield's biographer, who now lives at Ann Arbor, Mich.

The meeting this morning was presided over by State Senator W. T. Wallace, who made a speech in which he expressed his gratitude for the honor which had been conferred upon him when he was selected to preside. He then added some historical remarks which were timely. He introduced Senator Evarts, who was heartily applauded.

Senator Evarts spoke without manuscript and displayed more vigor than he has done in the senate for a long time. Said he: "The Marietta settlement was a wonderful exhibition of the courage of the forerunners of the present civilization. The courts of justice in the west that were opened a century ago have never been closed. In the God-given northwest laws have never been silent, and courts have never denied justice. There was no need of war or of desolation in other races to make room for us in the most unpeopled regions of the west. The problem was to see how we could keep free from other countries of Europe the narrow settlements of this country."

Senator Evarts explained the philosophy of the successful settlement of the whole country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and his remarks, after he passed his introduction, were not local in nature. He emphasized the fact that at the same time a slave ship and the Mayflower landed in America, and said that the element infused by the importation of slavery had borne a heavy burden in the destinies of the country. The problem was to keep separate the two races, and prevent an infusion of the ideas of the masters from entering the hardy and sternly moral settlements of New England. Other nations and ideas were kept out from the country by the presence of slavery till we were strong enough to master the world.

No one has raised a single stone in the noble temple of liberty, law and order set here by the seed bearers of civilization a century ago. Those who came here had neither material, purse or wealth. But better, they possessed the notion that nature was given by a good God to be subdued by them, and who will ever doubt that the cultivation of the heart and mind of men is the first care of Providence and for the best interest of human society?

Senator Evarts made a magnificent speech, and it is the best, most finished, instructive and eloquent utterance that has come from him for a dozen years. It is an effort which represents him at his best, and it has never been surpassed by him. The oration was listened to with deep interest by a superb audience, and its grace, fire and finish were potent enough to stir them to frequent and tumultuous applause. Senator Evarts has made an oration that shall go into his history.

The afternoon was given up to the representatives of Michigan and Illinois. State Senator Louis Palmer, of Michigan, set forth in strong, picturesque language the rise and development of Michigan from a crude wilderness to an important and opulent state. Senator Palmer was followed by Hon. J. N. F. Smith, who described the glory, greatness and progress of Indiana.

To-night there was a series of historical tableaux at the centennial auditorium building, in which the actors wore the garments of Putnam, Mrs. Bennerhassett and other distinguished historical personages whom they represent. The silken and satin clothes of many of the old settlers have been carefully preserved by their descendants and gave an air of reality to the moving pictures to-night.

Caught on the Sickle Bar.

ANDERSON, Ind., July 18.—While driving a reaping machine on his farm near Hagerstown, W. J. Purdy was thrown from the seat, and, being caught in the sickle bar, had both legs cut off near the body. He lived but a short time after the accident. Mr. Purdy was a mail agent on the Bee Line road, and ran between Indianapolis and Cleveland. He was one of the oldest agents in the country, having held the position for nearly twenty years, and was one of the two Republicans yet on that road.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
ALLAN G. THURMAN,
of Ohio.

AUGUST ELECTION, 1888.
For Sheriff,
JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

The Race for Sheriff.

The date of the August election is fast drawing near, and it behooves every Democrat to make up his mind at once to turn out on that day and vote for his party's nominee for Sheriff.

The office of Sheriff is the only one to be filled, outside of a few vacancies for Justice of the Peace.

The Republicans did not manifest much intention to oppose the election of Mr. John W. Alexander until within the past week, but they have changed their minds and have endorsed Mr. Thomas Forman, of the Washington neighborhood. Mr. Forman is their candidate, and has entered the field in earnest, and Democrats must not remain away from the polls under the impression that their nominee has no opposition. The Republicans are preparing to make a hot fight to defeat Mr. Alexander if possible, if not, then to reduce the Democratic majority. They will claim a reduction of a Democratic majority as a victory, and will herald it abroad as an encouragement to their friends in the November election. The result in August will, unmistakably, have an important bearing on the vote in November when the Congressional and Presidential tickets are to be voted for.

Let no Democrat be mistaken on this point. His duty to his party this year is enhanced by the great struggle now in progress. He who loves his party will not falter in this campaign. He will be found at the polls in August voting and working for the nominee for Sheriff, and he will be found on hand in November.

We wish to impress upon every Democrat in Mason County the importance of giving Mr. John W. Alexander a warm and enthusiastic support. A better man for Sheriff cannot be found in any party in the county. Honest as the day is long, a man of the strictest integrity, courteous and obliging, he enjoys the fullest respect and confidence of all who know him, and is well worthy of the support of any man. Moreover, he is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of the office. Let every Democrat turn out on the 6th day of August and elect Mr. Alexander by an old-time majority.

DEMOCRATS of the Hopkinsville district, this State, have nominated Captain W. T. Ellis, to succeed Hon. Polk Laffoon.

MAJOR W. H. COLB, who is spoken of as a candidate for Congress in the Tenth Kentucky district, is a Mason County man.

ONLY three Democratic Congressmen voted against the clause in the Mills bill making raw wool free. This is strong evidence of how unanimous the party is on the question of tariff reform.

REV. SAM JONES believes the Democrats will elect their ticket next fall, and he prays the Lord to give us a President every four years like Cleveland—"a man who has courage"—"a man who has a backbone like a circus pole."

CONGRESSMAN W. C. P. BRACKENRIDGE has formally announced himself as a candidate for re-election. He ought to have a walkover. Democrats of the Lexington district should feel proud of such a Representative, and take great delight in returning him.

REPUBLICANS of the Brown County (Ohio) Judicial district are much dissatisfied at the failure of Judge Louden, present incumbent, to receive the nomination. Mr. Louden was a candidate for re-election. He is an independent, and the straight-out fellows beat him.

SPEAKER CARLISLE announces himself as a candidate for re-election to Congress in the Covington district, but says it will be the last time. Republicans are seeking a coalition with the Laborites and will make a desperate effort to defeat the distinguished statesman.

THE tariff-protected monopolists will center their efforts against Speaker Carlisle in his fight for re-election to Congress and will flood the district with "boodle," and then if they succeed in defeating him they will say the people did it. That is the situation. They served Mr. Morrison that way.

ADJUTANT GENERAL S. E. HILL has been appointed State Agent to settle Kentucky's war claims against the Federal Government, by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund. This claim amounts to $210,000, and interest added $600,000. Auditor Hewitt and General Hill left for Washington Saturday night.

How Protection Protects.

"More than 1,000,000 working people in the United States are now idle. In New York city alone 67,000 men and 5000 women are out of work.—The Craftsman.

How can it be otherwise under the operation of the protective tariff? With a restricted market for nearly everything manufactured it is bound to become overstocked and operatives must remain idle until the surplus is disposed of, or continue work at reduced wages. What is the record? During the years 1884 and 1885—626 working days—the Pennsylvania miners were idle 239 days, or more than one-third of the entire time. One million working people idle! Lord, how protection protects—the millionaire monopolist—Indianapolis Labor Signal.

THE tariff-protected workingmen remain poor while the tariff-protected monopolists grow rich and richer. The Philadelphia Record thinks it is about time to divide the benefits and burdens of the tax laws. And it is, unquestionably, and Democrats are striving to bring that end about.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND vetoed three more pension bills Monday. One of the proposed beneficiaries was already on the pension list, receiving precisely the amount proposed in the vetoed bill. Now let the veterans hold an indignation meeting! It is well that the country has such a man as President Cleveland to guard the treasury from such bills.

THE American Protective Tariff league announces the following awards of prizes for seniors of American colleges for essays on "Protective Tariff." C. D. Todd, University of Wooster, O., first prize, $250; S. P. King, University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kas., second prize, $100; Lincoln Hulley, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., third prize, $50. Ten silver medals were awarded to others for excellence.

Cattle Dying From Poison.

MARION, Ind., July 18.—Dr. Bates, of Chicago, who has a farm stocked with fine graded cattle near Jonesboro, is serious loser of stock by poisoning. Up on Monday morning eight head had died and a large number of others are very sick. Recently Dr. Bates sent his former six pounds of Paris green to kill potato bugs. The poison was stolen and on the heels of its disappearance cattle commenced dying.

Ives, Stayner and Woodruff.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Henry S. Ives, George H. Stayner and E. Wilson Woodruff, ex-Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton officials, against whom indictments are said to have been found in Cincinnati, are all "out of town," and Prosecutor Fugh, of Cincinnati, and his assistants are liable to have a long search for them.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSICK.

We received a copy of the Cincinnati Centennial News a few days since, which gave a description of the various departments, among others the Department of Christian Advancement. But there was no mention made as to where those two saloons were placed—a great oversight, but they will be found all the same.

Mrs. Dr. Clarke, of Vanceburg, is visiting the family of Mrs. Susan Bedford.

Miss Emma Hinkle, of Paris, is visiting Miss Mollie Piper.

Alex. Daugherty, of Bourbon County, is visiting his old friends in this vicinity. He is the same old seven and six.

Some twenty-seven of the Indiana wheelmen passed through this place last week on bicycles.

A union meeting was held in the Christian Church last Sunday night. Z. T. Cody, of the Baptist Church, preached a very appropriate discourse. Prayer by Rev. Spears, of the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Faulkner, of Flemingsburg, erected this week a very massive granite monument to the memory of our former worthy citizen, John Clarke, in our cemetery.

All grains should be cut while the kernel is so soft as to be easily broken by the finger-nail, as if allowed to stand longer there is a loss from a shelling out of the grain in handling, and the grain is not as plump or as heavy as when cut earlier.

THE OUTCOME OF THE EXCHANGE OF IMPERIAL COURTESIES.

The idea of the visit said to have originated in Berlin—King Mwanga, of the Uganda Country, fears the English will punish him for murder—Foreign.

LONDON, July 18.—Continental Europe is now waiting with a proper amount of reverence and with an absorbing curiosity for the accomplishment of the royal visit at St. Petersburg. Perhaps no country on the continent, not excepting Germany, is as anxious over the event, or has more reason to be interested in the outcome of the exchange of the imperial courtesies as France.

From the tone of the French press, rather than from actual expression of opinion concerning the visit, it is not hard to see the uneasiness felt by the country which longs for a union with Russia, and looks with distrust upon the friendly call of an enemy upon a desired ally. Real opinion in the matter is divided.

Austria feels that she has reason to view with alarm any alliance between Germany and Russia, as she fears that such an alliance will disturb her Balkan policy. Bulgaria trembles, lest the czar be given license to do as he likes with that principality. The sultan for no reason in particular, and for every reason in general, fears the results of the meeting, for to his mind it has the possible meaning of his expulsion from Europe. The meeting, however, need not alarm anyone, it will not startle anybody by weighty negotiations for settling the disputes of Europe by arms, nor will it give assurance to the powers of universal peace by reasons of the deliberations of the two emperors. It neither means the alliance of the two empires nor the preparations for an alliance.

It is the friendly visit of one ruler upon another, and while it does not necessarily offer a demonstration in favor of peace, yet it cannot but be hoped that war will be the harder for the meeting. The czar's friendship for France will not hinder his making Emperor William's sojourn in Russia exceedingly pleasant, but further than this France need not feel any apprehension.

The czar will greet with apparent affection and warmth his distinguished guest while the latter will delight the ears of his hosts with polite praises in the Slavonic tongue, and all will be peace and happiness, while the visit lasts, and after that affair, will return very much to the old footing.

The North German Gazette, in an inspired article, admits that the idea of Emperor William visiting Russia originated in Berlin.

That is to say, it did not originate in Vienna, or in consequence of any primary understanding with Germany's ally. For several years Germany has dictated Austrian policy. But within the last year the latter has cut loose, in a measure, from leading strings at a great expense of war preparation, that she may be in a position to support a policy of her own. Nevertheless, the reticence of the Austrian press upon the purpose of William's visit is probably due to government restraint, and indicates some sort of an understanding between the governments of Austria and Germany.

The Latest From Uganda.

LONDON, July 18.—The latest reports from Uganda say that the cruel king of that country is almost wild for fear that the Europeans are coming to punish him for the murder of Bishop Hannington. He has told Mr. Gordon, the only Englishman now at his capital, that he may consider himself a prisoner, and that he will be killed if the English come to avenge the death of Hannington. The Arabs have greatly excited the king by exaggerated statements, that the Germans and English have divided east Africa between them. They have told the credulous and ignorant ruler that the Germans are building a railroad to the south end of Victoria Nyanza, and that the English have included Uganda in their territory and are building a railroad from the coast right to his capital.

The frightened king has accordingly told Mr. Gordon that he will be permitted to depart, provided one or two Englishmen come to take his place. Otherwise he must not venture outside the town of Rubaga. Gordon has also been told to inform the English that if an expedition, large or small, is sent by them to Uganda, his life will be forfeited, and the king will fight the intruders. Inasmuch as the English have not the slightest intention of sending an expedition to Uganda, Gordon's life does not appear to be in danger on that score, but he is in the unpleasant predicament of being compelled to remain in Rubaga whether he desires to or not.

Before King Mwanga succeeded to the throne he attended the mission services, and there learned to read a little. He has now prohibited all his people from learning to read. They know that to be detected would be sure death, and yet a few of them meet secretly to learn to read and to take part in the mission services.

Mwanga says that now he is king he wants to hear no more of the Christian religion until he is old and near death. He seems to think it a good religion to die by.

Murdering Insured Children.

LONDON, July 18.—The poor relief committee of the house of lords has been hearing the views of different clergymen and philanthropic persons concerning charities. Today a Rev. Mr. Waugh testified before the committee that thousands of children were starved or otherwise murdered in England every winter in order to obtain a paltry amount of insurance which was placed upon their lives. He denounced the system of insuring children's lives, which he said was simply offering a premium to murder. Many wretched systems of crime have been brought to the astonished lords since they began their investigations.

A Protest.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 18.—The Railway Junction company has protested to the port against the seizure by Bulgaria of the Bellosva-Vakard railway. The company has also asked the intervention of the French embassy.

Foreign Notes.

The government will sign the sugar bounties treaty on August 18. Emperor William has agreed to the proposals that his mother should bear the titles of Empress and Queen Frederick.

A cruel case of eviction is reported from Kilmurray, Ireland, where five naked children were ejected from their home.

Herr Schmidt, editor of the Cologne Gazette, has been imprisoned for a month in a fortress for writing articles calumniating Prince Heinrich of Reuss.

The royal yacht bearing the czar and zarina, who have been visiting Finland, passed Cronstadt at 5:30 Monday. They will there await the coming of Emperor William.

It is officially announced that after January 1, 1889, in Alsace and Lorraine, all private documents written in the French language, bearing no date or dated subsequent to July 1, 1878, must be accompanied by an authorized German translation at the cost of the parties concerned.

The decoration of commander of the Legion of Honor is to be conferred upon M. Alexander Dumas, the dramatist, and the decoration of knight of the same order upon M. Emile Zola, the novelist.

Col. Sir Francis DeWinton, president of the Enin Bey relief committee, in an interview with the king of Belgians, expressed the belief that the white pasha reported to have arrived at Bahr-el-Gazel is Henry M. Stanley.

The French chamber of deputies discussed the credit of $13,400,000 asked by the government for the strengthening of port defenses. The motion to vote urgency for the consideration of the bill was rejected—441 to 343.

Gen. Boulanger's condition is reported as unchanged. The doctors have forbidden him to speak. He wrote on a piece of paper: "I am like the late emperor." M. Floquet sends twice daily to inquire as to his progress. The doctors do not speak with great confidence as yet.

Sporting Notes.

Amos Cross, the once famous catcher of the Louisville, is dying of consumption at Cleveland.

Tommy Molloy and Tommy Hanley, of Cincinnati, are matched for a fight to a finish for a purse of $300.

Winners at Brighton Beach Monday: Burton, Trix, Anna B, Autumn Leaf, Bodelaise and Cruiser.

MONDAY'S BASE BALL.—Pittsburg 0, Philadelphia 1; Chicago 4, New York 12; Indianapolis 2, Washington 0; Detroit 3, Boston 2.

Frank Mountain, manager of the Toledo base ball club, has been released. He blacklisted several players, who went on a strike, and there was a popular howl against him.

A Big Match On.

NEW YORK, July 18.—There is a fair prospect of a match for a good amount of money between Jack McAuliffe and Billy Dacey for the light-weight championship of America. Dacey has found friends who are willing to give him a chance at McAuliffe, and the latter, like Barkis, "is willing" to tackle him. The arrangements will very likely be made this week.

Two Women Meet a Horrible Fate.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 18.—Mrs. John Floss and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Millet, of East Buffalo, were burned to death last night. While chatting in the kitchen of Mrs. Millet's house, a lamp exploded and covered the women with burning oil, and before the flames could be extinguished both were fatally burned.

With Yellow Jack on Board.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Marine hospital bureau is informed of the arrival at Ship Island quarantine station, Mississippi, of the Norwegian bark Magnolia, from Rio Janeiro. The captain and four of her crew died from yellow fever after leaving Rio. The vessel will be detained at quarantine.

Murderers Arrested and Rescued.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 18.—Near Jellico Plains, Monroe county, a number of colored women Monday engaged in a free fight at a picnic, when one of them shot another in the neck, causing instant death. The murderers were arrested, but afterward forcibly taken from the officers and escaped.

Struck Boiling Water.

DELPHOS, O., July 18.—Gas well No. 4 was shot Monday with sixty quarts of nitroglycerine, which was followed by a heavy flow of boiling water. The flow still continues, and is flooding the adjacent lands. Quite a large volume escapes, but, in fact, it is a boiling water well.

To Be Hoped They Hang for It.

TILBURY CENTER, Ont., July 18.—Burglars entered the house of Wilson Houghton, a quiet and inoffensive old man last night, stole $500 and shot Houghton in the abdomen. The wounded man died this morning.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Indications—Stationary temperatures; fair weather, followed by local rains; southeasterly winds.
